ARTICLE VII.

ENDOWMENT, DUES AND TAXES.

Each member in the order shall pay to the Supreme Lodge the sum of 10c. per quarter for an endowment of fifty dollars at death. Each member in the order shall pay the Supreme Lodge semi-annually five cents as semi-annual or pass-word tax. These taxes and endowment moneys must be sent directly to the Supreme Protector, under the rules and regulations of the Endowment Laws as follow :

JUVENILE ENDOWMENT LAWS.

Section 1. The endowment is fifty ($50.00) for the death of a member in good standing to be paid in thirty and sixty days of twenty five (25.00) dollars each after the filing of the proof of death.

Sec. 2. Each child must procure a policy that will entitle it to the endowment. The cost of the policy is twenty-five (25) cents upon the child joining, and ten (10) cents every three months, commencing with the first day of July, October, January and April of each year. Said money (10 cts.) must be paid at office of Sup. Protector not later than the 10th day of each month mentioned above; failure to do so suspends the lodge.

Sec. 3. In order that there be no delay, each Lodge must forward to Supreme Office, Box 75, Cincinnati, O., the names of all new members with 25c. for each one on the roll of the Lodge. This must be forwarded by the Teacher or Matron not later than 10 days after admitting the new member.

Sec. 4. For which a policy will be sent that will carry the member on the Endowment Rolls fully paid up till new quarter. On the first day of October, January, April and July thereafter, the sum of 10 cts. must be sent, to keep up the endowment, and the sum of 25 cts. sent for each new member, immediately after their names are on the rolls as per section 3.

Sec. 5. In case of the death of a member in 30 days after they have secured their policy, they will be entitled to the endowment of fifty ($50.00) dollars for their parents.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the Matron and Teacher, or Secretary, in case of death of a member to file in Sup. Protector's office, 10 days after such death, a certificate of the Doctor, Undertaker, sworn to by the above named officers. Blanks for that purpose will be furnished by our office.

Approved,

Attest :

E. A. WILLIAMS, Sup. Pro.

ALICE McWILLIAMS, Sup. Sec.

Sec. 3. All the form cards, books, regalia and general outfit shall come from the Grand Lodge on an order from the Sup. Protector, authorizing the lodge to procure elsewhere will be necessary and any lodge, officer or deputy violating Sections 1, 2 and 3 of this Article shall be subject to suspension and forfeiture of charter and authority.

Songs of the Order.

OPENING ODE.

AIR—"CORONATION."

Come, Knights and Ladies once again,
To join in works of love,
To soothe all sorrow, ease all pain,
And look for grace above.

Our Great Protector we revere,
And on His help depend;
We earnestly will labor here,
And trust Him to the end.

LODGE SONG—C. M.

There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

There everlasting springs abide,
And never withering flowers;
Death like a narrow sea divides
This heavenly land from ours.

SONG—C. M.

Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dressed in living green,
So to the Jews old Canaan stood
While Jordan rolled between.

Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

SONG—WELCOME OR JOINING ODE.

AIR—"AULD LANG SYNNE."

"Entreat me not, dear friend, to go,
Or leave thy cherished side;
The Lord hath called me here, I know,
And here I will abide.

CHORUS:

"There is a place beyond the sea,
Where sisters meet again;
Ah! let me journey there with thee,
And with thee still remain.

"I go with thee, do not deny,
I'll make with thee my home;
Where'er thou diest, I will die,
And there shall be my home.

CHORUS:

"There is a place beyond the sea,
Where brothers meet again;
Ah! let me journey there with thee,
And with thee still remain."

SONG—WELCOME ODE.

AIR—"ANTIOCH."

Joy! for our walls are high and strong,
Our portals wide and fair;
Lift up the glad, triumphant song,
Pour forth the grateful prayer.

Thanks to that God who is our stay,
Whose hand hath led us on;
Still may He guide us on our way,
Till Mercy's work is done.

SONG.

A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never dying soul to save,
And fit it for the skies.

CLOSING ODE.

AIR—"LANESBOROUGH."

We're parting now, but let us say
That in our lives we'll bear
Sweet incense from our "O. M. A.,"
As summer fills the air.

Oh! may we seek, through faith, to wear
The "Mystic Badge" above;
To meet in yonder Eden Lodge,
Where none need part who love.

PRAYER.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth,
As it is done in Heaven.
Give us this day, our daily bread,
And forgive us our sins and trespasses,
As we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptations,
But deliver us from evil;
For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power,
The Glory; forever and ever.—Amen.
